Creating a yearbook for the school and more so for seniors during covid is no easy task. This group of junior and senior editors took on the challenge to be sure their peers had a yearbook full of memories. These editors worked so well as a team that they were always ahead of their deadlines. There was lots of laughter, stories and bonding during the process and I never could have done it without each of these student editors. They had a creative and collaborative solution for every obstacle. As yearbook class moves to being a club only, I couldn't end Yearbook class on a better note than with this group. So many, many thanks to each and every one of my editors for a job well done and for filling my room with all their positive energy. Miss you already!

Noelle Angeline Schillberg

Oh Noelle, where do I start? You blew every preconception I had about parenthood out of the water. You make us laugh and were just the most fun kid. I swear when you first smiled at me, I felt the most loved I've ever felt in my whole life. Your dad and I joke about what you'll do in life, but I know whatever it is will be amazing (and most likely expensive).
I'm including the funniest picture of you and also the expensive picture you didn't use because Dad said you looked like me in it.

Love Mom
I had to talk Dad into paying for this so I'm

Molly Elizabeth Lovering

To our Amazing Molly,

It is so true what they say..."The days are long but years are fast." It is impossible to us that you are graduating from high school. You have grown up into a thoughtful, courageous, talented, kind, funny young lady, who brings such joy to our family.

Your high school years are marked by your academic success, your experiences and success in various sports and activities, your incredible friendships and the positive impact you've made on so many. Words can't describe how proud we are of you.

As you prepare for your next chapter at Elon University remember..."Be good to people. You will be remembered more for your kindness than any level of success you could possibly attain."

Have fun and make good choices! Thanks for being even better than we ever dreamed you could be.

Congratulations to my amazing homeroom! I have watched as you have grown from that rambunctious freshmen homeroom to somewhat sophisticated seniors. You are all going in many directions whether it be college, the work force , a gap year or something else. I hope you all remember each other and our homeroom 135 with our great door decorating, lots of snacks and always winning the food drive! I will miss you tons but you know where to find me! Wishing you nothing but the best-Love you! MS H
